THE SCHOOL SONG

The words and music of this song have been composed by Miss P. A. LARKIN, the Music Mistress of the School. This is the first time it has been sung in public.

Our sojourn here, although of brief duration,
We dedicate, to honour this foundation;
Here may we strive; here may we seek anew,
Amid the splendours of this land so fair,
That this proud cry may ever be our care!
"Floremus! Floremus! Procul a patria floremus."

Here may we know the truths that last forever,
May hope and strength combine in our endeavour
That skill of limb, that work of mind and heart
Shall prosper freely in this land so fair,
And this proud cry shall ever be our care!
"Floremus! Floremus! Procul a patria floremus."
